

Te Tiriti o Waitangi workshop

Wed 6 and Thurs 7 April 2022

9.00 am – 1.00 pm (breaks included)

Online via Zoom

Join us for this popular interactive workshop on Te Tiriti o Waitangi

You'll gain a thorough overview of Te Tiriti, why it came about and what it means today.

Suitable for those new to the topic or wanting to refresh their knowledge.

Register now or email us for a full programme.

30 spaces available.

Click here to register

Activity in breakout rooms

The image shows a grid of six activity cards for breakout rooms. The cards are:

- Trading cards activity: Learning at the heart of this workshop... between Māori and settlers
- What was happening before Te Tiriti?: This activity helps us understand the quality of the relationship between Māori and the settlers who began arriving from the 17th century onwards...
- Literacy: This activity helps us understand the quality of the relationship between Māori and the settlers who began arriving from the 17th century onwards...
- Māori international travel: This activity helps us understand the quality of the relationship between Māori and the settlers who began arriving from the 17th century onwards...
- Whenua (land): This activity helps us understand the quality of the relationship between Māori and the settlers who began arriving from the 17th century onwards...
- A card with a landscape image and text.

Run by Tauwi facilitators from Tangata Tiriti – Treaty People
treatypeople.org • treatypeople@gmail.com • facebook.com/treatypeople