

APPLYING TE TIRITI ALLYSHIP IN CAMPAIGNING WORK

Tuesday 5 April, 4 - 5.30pm

This is a workshop/discussion on how we Tangata Tiriti can be better allies in the midst of a range of campaigns and keep challenging ourselves about a practical application of Te Tiriti responsibilities.

Campaigning for justice based change in Aotearoa requires us to address colonisation and Te Tiriti responsibilities in our activism. Allyship is a practice not an identity and we need to examine the issues of mutual liberation and solidarity whatever the focus of our work.

Bring your tricky experiences and mistakes to share – we can help each other !

Catherine Delahunty is a Te Tiriti educator, community based campaigner and tutor for Kotare. She is actively involved in Coromandel Watchdog of Hauraki, West Papua National Network and “The Basket – social and environmental justice Hauraki” and more.

TIRITI-BASED FUTURES +
ANTI-RACISM

KOTARE
RESEARCH AND EDUCATION
FOR SOCIAL CHANGE